Clark, for eight years past one of the most efficient office men employed by the Tampa branch of the Havana-American Co., and office manager of the Seidenberg factory, has resigned, and tomorrow morning begins work as office manager for E. Regensburg & Sons, at the old Ballard factory, which the company will use until their new home is erected on Michigan avenue.—Tampa Tribune.

Mr. Clark, before going to Tampa some years ago, made his home in this city.

A party of tourists passing through Ocala yesterday en route to their home in the west, got off the train long enough to take a stroll around our public square, and the beauty of our court house grounds elicited from them quite a number of very complimentary remarks. Ocala has every right to be proud of her looks, and she ought to do something to attract the tourists. We have a good, clean, healthy, moral city, beautiful drives and hard roads for automobile enthusiasts, the most beautiful golf links in the entire state of Florida, splendid fishing, bathing and boating within easy access and fine hunting. In fact there is no reason why Ocala should not have a great number of tourists.

MRS. WILLIAM ANDERSON HOSTESS OF THE MARRIED LADIES' CARD CLUB

Mrs. William Anderson was the gracious hostess of the Married Ladies' Card Club Wednesday afternoon at their regular weekly meeting.

Dainty little Miss Mary Birdsey, gowned in a charming little dress of white, with yellow ribbons, met the guests at the front door.

Receiving with Mrs. Anderson were Mrs. Steel, who has just recently moved to Ocala, Mrs. Rapalje and Mrs. Birdsey.

Mrs. Looney invited the guests to the back hall, where delicious punch was passed by Misses Carrie Williams, Pauline Sullivan, Alice Bullock and Tillie Pasteur.

Mrs. C. H. Gamsby passed the score cards, and very pretty and dainty hand-made ones they were.

There were five tables placed in the drawing room and dining room, and from four until five-thirty the ever fascinating game of whist was enjoyed.

At the conclusion of the games strawberry cream and cake was served.

Mrs. Looney proved to have the highest score among the members and Mrs. Maugh's among the visitors, and they were awarded with pretty little prizes.

Those invited to Mrs. Anderson's club meeting besides the members were: Mrs. D. M. Smith, Mrs. Rapalje, Mrs. Maugh's, Mrs. Roess, Mrs. H. L. Anderson, Mrs. Mote, Mrs. C. H. Gamsby, Miss Minnie Gamsby, Mrs. C. C. Todd, Miss Esther Weathers Mrs. Birdsey, Mrs. Harvey Clark and Mrs. W. S. Bullock, Miss Sarah McCreery, Miss Meta Jewett.

COMPLIMENTARY BALL

One of the most pleasant social evenings spent for some time was the ball given by several of the young men at the palatial Elks home on West Liberty street, Friday evening, when they entertained a number of young ladies.

The ball was given in honor of the visiting young ladies, Miss Antoinette Blount of Atlanta, Ga., a guest of Miss Elsie Walker; Miss Caroline Myers of Paris, Texas, a guest of Miss Lucile Colclough, and Misses Caro Liddon and Weeks, who are guests of their sisters, Misses James and Sam Dell.

The music for the occasion was furnished by the Gainesville orchestra, under the leadership of Prof. J. E. Woltz, and was highly enjoyed by the large number present.

Although the evening was a warm one, the electric fans and plenty of elegant punch made it a very pleasant occasion and one that will long be remembered.—Gainesville Sun.

MR. JORDAN'S MONEY TALKED

Expended $8.35 for L. & M. Paint to fix up his house. If for sale it would fetch a good price. The painters said it was 3 gallons of oil they mixed with 4 gallons of L. & M. that did the job at 1-3 less cost than ever before. Its coloring is bright, beautiful and lasting. It won't have to be painted again for 12 to 15 years, because the L. & M. Paint is Zinc Metal Oxide combined with White Lead, and wears and covers like gold.

Sold by McIver & MacKay, Ocala, Fla.

Mrs. W. K. Pendleton of Savannah is in Jacksonville on a visit to her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Reardon. She is accompanied by her infant son, Master Reardon Pendleton. Mrs. Pendleton's Ocala friends hope she will come to Ocala before returning to her home in Savannah.

Judge W. S. Bullock, State Attorney Davis and Attorney R. B. Bullock started for Brooksville yesterday afternoon, but as the train was late, when they reached Croom the Brooksville train had left, and they were compelled to remain in the former place all night.

Miss Sadie Crown of Tampa arrived in Ocala Wednesday to be the guest of Mrs. Jake Brown, and later she will visit Mrs. William Wolf at the Arms House. Miss Crown is a daughter of the late Nathan Crown of this city, and Ocala was her home before the death of her father some years ago.

TO THE UNITED DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY

Again your president sends greetings to all, with good wishes that the spring time has brought you health and happiness and harmony of action and endeavor; with the hopeful resurrection lesson that Nature teaches, that, if fruition shall come to us later, this is the season of labor. Therefore, it becomes my duty to urge you to summon your forces for the work that is before us, if the objects of our organization shall be fulfilled.

The committees of the general association, U. D. C., have formulated plans for this purpose, and ask your co-operation. The chairman of committee on education, Miss Mary B. Poppenheim, Charleston, has ably outlined this work, in most comprehensive form, and it is requested that state presidents, and chapter presidents in states where no division exists—will appoint a state committee on education to carry out her plan. State division presidents will give support and aid to the work of Mrs. J. Enders Robinson, historian general, U. D. C., for without such support she cannot execute the excellent plan proposed for the advancement of this department. State and chapter registrars are asked to respond promptly to the request of Mrs. James Britton Grant, registrar general, U. D. C., for data and records of their offices.

It is well to call your attention to the near approach of the annual reunion of our dear veterans of the confederacy, which will be held in Memphis, Tennessee, June 8th, 9th and 10th. Let us rally to their banners, which will be proudly unfurled, and show them by word and deed, that we cherish their service and sacrifice, that we may still be to them, as in the past, an inspiration and strength. We honor ourselves in paying tribute to these heroes of imperishable fame.

Since last open letter to you, Dr. J. William Jones, chaplain to Gen. Robert E. Lee, and historian of the confederate states, noted scholar and divine, has joined the ranks of the immortal host, who now "rest under the trees" of life eternal,—the men who followed the command of Lee. Our loving sympathy goes out to the widow and sons, who are called to mourn this irreparable loss, for their sorrow is ours.

The chief commemorative work of the general association, U. D. C., is the placing of two monuments, one on the battlefield of Shiloh—where gallantly fought and fell, many of the south's bravest defenders, led by the great chieftain, Albert Sidney Johnston, who fell there, a sacrifice to his southland,—and the erection of a monument in the Arlington national cemetery, where sleep some of our Confederate dead. This has a triple claim upon you, for resting as it will, on the soil of the home of Robert E. Lee, it will be a memorial to that peerless commander; again, it will typify the spirit of the Confederate states, which was the defense of constitutional government; and it will further mark the spot where, through the magnanimity of a provision of congress, honorable place was given to some of our Confederate dead, and where daily care is shown to their graves. Shall we be less thoughtful of theirs, our dead? The executive monument association, Col. Hilary A. Herbert, chairman is asking every chapter throughout this organization, to set aside one day in the near future, for concerted action in collecting funds for this purpose. The committee's plan will be sent out to you, and your president asks your earnest and active co-operation, which, if had, a large sum may be realized, with little individual cost.

The veterans are asking your assistance in the purchase of the home and birthplace of President Jefferson Davis, at Fairview, Kentucky. Send contributions to Major John H. Leathers, Louisville, Kentucky. Let each chapter give something to this worthy historical object.

Let each of us be mindful of the valuable work being done by the "Confederate Veteran" and show appreciation by subscribing, for it keeps us in touch with much that we should know. Join with your president in making our great association of patriotic and historic value; by so doing we honor and glorify a past, so full of heroic memories, the history of a chivalrous, valiant people.

CORNELIA BRANCH STONE,
President-General, U. D. C.

THE MEETING OF THE WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION

The meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union at the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon was the largest meeting that this body has held for some months, and one of the most interesting. Mrs. H. C. Packham is president of the union and presided at this meeting. She and Mrs. S. A. Standley were delegates from Ocala to Tallahassee last week, and were present when the temperance bill passed the legislature. The members of the W. C. T. U. who were present during the campaign did some very effective work.

Mrs. Standley read the report of the Ocala delegation and told many interesting incidents relating to the passing of the bill.

Rev. C. C. Carroll was present and delivered a very fine lecture before the legislature, which was most favorably received.

Mrs. R. A. Burford and Mrs. E. Van Hood were also in Tallahassee last week, and they were all among the guests at the very elegant reception which was given by Governor Gilchrist at the mansion in honor of the many distinguished visitors at the capital city at that time.

At the meeting Wednesday afternoon many important measures in the interest of temperance were discussed and plans made for the continuing of the temperance campaign with renewed vigor.

It was decided at this meeting to give an ice cream social on the 7th of May in the Gary grove on Fort King avenue, a more extended announcement of which will be made later.

Mrs. Arthur Hardaker of Tampa came up Wednesday to spend a few days with her sister, Miss Mary Platt, at the home of Mrs. D. W. Davis.

MR. COLEMAN PURCHASES PROPERTY

Mr. W. H. Coleman, the popular pastor of the Christian church, has just purchased from Mr. Thompson the two-story house at Watula street, opposite the residence owned by Dr. Walter Hood and is occupied by Mr. H. C. Judd.

Mr. Coleman will have this place repaired, painted, etc., and will rent it. Mr. Coleman now owns a number of houses in this city, and finds them to be good investments.

NO NEW TRIAL FOR COOPER

Judge William H. Hart on Tuesday, at Nashville, overruled the motion for a new trial in the case of Col. Duncan B. Cooper and Robin J. Cooper, his son, both convicted of the murder of former United States Senator Carmack. The court's opinion was that there was no ground for setting aside the verdict of the trial jury. The defense at once gave notice of an appeal to the Tennessee supreme court. The appeal was granted.

The bond remains the same, and the same bondsmen qualified. The defense demanded thirty days in which to file a bill of exceptions. Decision on this point was deferred until Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Maxey D. Moody, who were recently married at the home of the bride in Jacksonville, after spending their honeymoon in Tampa, have returned to their home in the former city. Mr. and Mrs. Moody had planned an extensive trip to Washington and other eastern cities, but went to Tampa instead, on account of the illness of the groom's mother, Mrs. E. P. Moody, of this city. Mrs. Moody has been in Tampa for several weeks, visiting her sons, Messrs. Sloman and Adelbert Moody, of that city. Her Ocala friends will be sorry to know of her illness, and hope that she has now fully recovered. Mr. and Mrs. Maxey Moody will reside in Jacksonville at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Gus Muller, on East Duval street.

UNCLE SAM TAKES A HAND IN EVERGLADES DRAINAGE

Trustees of "Two I." Fund Warned Against Draining Lake Okeechobee—Uncle Sam Claims Jurisdiction

By request of the trustees of the internal improvement fund, Hon. A. C. Croom, comptroller of the state of Florida, went down to Jacksonville last week to confer with Chief Engineer Spaulding and Special Government Engineer Kavanaugh, sent out from Washington by the United States government. Mr. Croom reported today that Mr. Kavanaugh stated at this conference that the United States claimed jurisdiction over Lake Okeechobee, and warned the trustees against draining off the waters of the lake, either by tributary streams, canals already in operation, or by tapping the lake itself. The engineer further stated that the war department would not take the matter up for adjustment and advised that the trustees take steps to have Florida's representatives in congress procure legislation that will allow the work of draining the Everglades to progress. The question of federal jurisdiction is a mooted one, which will be thoroughly threshed out by the state. In the meantime, it is the determination of the trustees to go on with the work now in hand.—Tallahassee Special to Times-Union.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Johnson and little daughter, Helen, and Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs. Hodge, of Martel, have gone to Saluda, N. C., where they will remain until next fall. They own a very delightful summer home at Saluda, which is one of the most popular of the mountain resorts. Mr. Johnson will divide his time between Florida and North Carolina during the summer months.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Croom has just been newly painted and it has very greatly improved the appearance of this place.
